

Week of the Young Child 2019 calendar of local events:

www.ccrfoxvalley.org

The 2nd Annual

Paper Doll Community Awareness Project:

This year CCR&R will again display groups of paper dolls cut out and decorated by children in area child care programs. The paper dolls can be viewed in the community from April 8-12th in the windows of 122 E. College Ave, Appleton. For more information on the paper doll project, please visit our website at www.ccrfoxvalley.org

Growing Kindness;

One Child, One Family at a Time:

Join the Community Early Learning Center for a family event and resource fair centered around showing kindness in our community. The free admission event will take place on Thursday, April 11th at the CELC, located at 313 State St. Appleton, from 5:30-7:30 pm. The night will include yoga, music, song and dance, make and take activities, face painting, games and refreshments, door prizes, and free giveaways! No registration required.

Family Story Time and Movie Night:

The Elisha D Smith Public Library in Menasha will be running family story time at 10:00 am on Monday April 8th and Tuesday April 9th. They will also be showing the movie Ralph Breaks the Internet from 6:30-8:00 pm on Tuesday April 9th. These events are free, with no registration necessary.

Tour of Centers 2019:

The Fox Valley Chapter of the Wisconsin Early Education Association will be sponsoring an annual night of touring local child care centers on Monday, April 15th from 6-9 pm. The night presents a wonderful opportunity for child care providers to collect ideas and discover the strengths in other programs. For registration and more information visit www.foxvalleychapter.org.

For activity ideas, theme days, and more information on Week of the Young Child, visit the National Association for the Education of Young Children (NAEYC) website at www.naeyc.org/woyc

