

Join our Board of Directors!

Child Care Resource & Referral, Fox Cities (CCR&R) provides free referral services to families looking for child care, as well as education on quality indicators and how to select a child care program that fits a family's needs. CCR&R also provides an entry point to the early care and education field by providing training opportunities, business start-up sessions, and technical assistance. Our mission is to provide services that increase community awareness and enhance the quality and availability of child care.

CCR&R is currently seeking community members to serve on our Board of Directors. Suggested backgrounds may include (but not be limited to) the following:

- Philanthropy
- Community Relations
- Fundraising and Event Planning
- Finances
- Legal
